Nifty Vs OI

View

- FII's formed short position in the stock futures to the tune of Rs.538cr while they were net buyers to the tune of Rs. 2173cr in the cash market segment. As suggested by SGX Nifty we may see a flat opening.
- In last trading session, 5000 put added 18092 lots in open interest. As this strike has highest open interest of the series and IVs are at low level, this is the buying of put to hedge portfolio. Advisable to square long position.
- Auto sector is likely to underperform going forward. Participants having long position can square their position around this level. In the space, BAJAJAUTO, HEROHONDA and M&M are particularly looking weak.
- Siemens has seen profit booking at higher levels. Advisable to go short with a price target of Rs.690.
